

14-15 SEPTEMBER 2017
JOHN LENNON
ART & DESIGN BUILDING
 LIVERPOOL JOHN MOORES UNIVERSITY

PROGRAMME

DAY ONE

TIME	TOPIC
10:00	Welcome
10:15	Introduction Ruth Eley - chair, Liverpool Dementia Action Alliance, vice-chair Life Story Network
10:20	First Person Accounts: Why design matter to people with dementia & their carers
10:40	Why design matters: the impact on physical and mental well-being Beatrice Fraenkel, Chair Mersey Care NHS Trust
11:10	Why design matters - the benefits for business Panel: Sarah Waller, Associate Specialist at the Association for Dementia Studies, University of Worcester ; Sarah Weir, CEO The Design Council, Board Member of Alzheimer's Society; Chris Lawler, Store Manager, The Co-operative, Chair Wirral DAA
11:40	BREAK
12:00	Interior Design Designing interiors which work well and look good for people with dementia Gladys Marr, Space Zero Do wet-rooms assist independent living? Bryon Chappell Impey Showers	Housing for an ageing population A demonstration dementia home in theory and practice Dr David Kelly, Building Research Establishment Bill Halsall, Halsall Lloyd Partnership Eef Hogervorst, Loughborough University	Developing dementia-aware design professionals The challenge of dementia for architects & educationalists Round table discussion led by Ian Wroot, President, Liverpool Architectural Society	HAPPI at home? Dementia housing charter - meeting the challenge Wendy Wells, Guinness Partnership Future-proofing housing for an ageing population Jeremy Porteus, Housing Learning and Improvement Network	Living Lab Co-creating solutions to address difficulties and improve quality of life Led by members of Liverpool JMU
13:00	LUNCH

13:45	Why design matters: the role of the Design Council in influencing change Sarah Weir, CEO The Design Council
14:05	PEOPLE MOVING TO PARALLEL SESSIONS
14:10	Response of arts & cultural sector Involving and improving access for people with dementia and carers Brendan Douglas, Liverpool Everyman and Playhouse Theatres Roger McKinley, FACT Victoria Pratt, Invisible Flock	Making external spaces inclusive Exploring latest research into relationship-centred design for gardens and outdoor spaces Mark Rendell, Step Change Design	Staying Put Should we stay or should we go? Our story Phil & Julie Dickinson, SURF An APP to help people with dementia retain control of their living space Dave Anderson Social Care Institute for Excellence	Independence & technology Can tracking devices enable people to stay safe at home for longer? Emma Stafford, Mersey Care NHS Trust Will Henderson, Liverpool JMU Ian McConville Developing a travel APP Dave Burrows, Damibu	Living Lab Co-creating solutions to address difficulties and improve quality of life Led by members of Liverpool JMU
15:10	PEOPLE MOVING BACK INTO MAIN ROOM
15:20	What we already know about design for dementia Professor Mary Marshall, senior consultant with The Dementia Centre, HammondCare
15:45	PEOPLE MOVING TO PARALLEL SESSIONS
15:50	Designing for the mind: A condensed masterclass on making spaces responsive to people with differing physical	How can OTs influence design? Working with developers, housing agencies and local authority grant teams	Strategic responses Thinking creatively - using the Better Care Fund Nina Warrington, Worcester City Council Dementia dwelling grant pilot - adaptations	Responding to the housing challenge What has been learned from innovation in extra care housing? Luke Reeves, Wales and	Living Lab Co-creating solutions to address difficulties and improve quality of life.

	and cognitive needs and capacities Alastair Somerville, Acuity Design *Extended sessions 1.5 hours	Michele Finney, Independent Housing Occupational Therapist	involved and research to be undertaken Sarah Waller, Association for Dementia Studies, University of Worcester	West Housing Association Integrating design for dementia into new housing project commissions Damian Utton, Pozzoni Architects	Led by members of Liverpool JMU
16:50	END OF DAY ONE
18:00	WINE RECEPTION

DAY TWO

TIME	TOPIC
9:30	Welcome to day two Jack Coutts, chair, Community Engagement and Education group, Liverpool DAA
9:40	Lived experience: What we're doing in Liverpool to influence design SURF members
9:55	PEOPLE MOVING TO PARALLEL SESSIONS
10:00	Making adjustments Helping people live at home - the role that occupational therapists have to play	Living Lab Co-creating solutions to address difficulties and improve quality of life Led by members of Liverpool JMU	Removing barriers Wayfinding - improving accessibility through needs-specific signage Karen Clayton, Find Signage Integrating acute & social care around a hub - a case study	Influencing contractors and trades associations Can education, training and a code of conduct improve customer experience? Steve Callaghan, Care Aware International Supporting apprenticeships to understand

	Jill Pendleton and Emma Stafford, Mersey Care NHS Trust		Derek Shepherd, P + HS Architects		dementia Steve Craig, UCATT
11:00	BREAK
11:15	Co-producing technology solutions How working with people with dementia & carers informed the design of a ground-breaking memory app Chris Morland, Citrus Suite	Building standards and dementia Can building regulations promote dementia-inclusive construction standards? Joe Forster, Design In Mental Health Efthimia Pantartzis, Loughborough University	Influencing planners and developers Creating better places for people with dementia Sarah Lewis, RTPi Dementia-inclusive supplementary planning documents Maria Dunn, Worcester City Council Marta Dziudzi, Worcestershire County Council	Living Lab Co-creating solutions to address difficulties and improve quality of life Led by members of Liverpool JMU	Beyond the front door The meaning of home for people with dementia and carers Ruth Eley, Life Story Network Moving to extra care housing - our story Eileen & Dave Gilbert, SURF Improving the home environment for our residents with dementia Isobel Godwin, Liverpool Housing Trust
12:15	Final sum up including living lab outcome and closing remarks				